

How to Use the Online Catalog

The Online Catalog is:

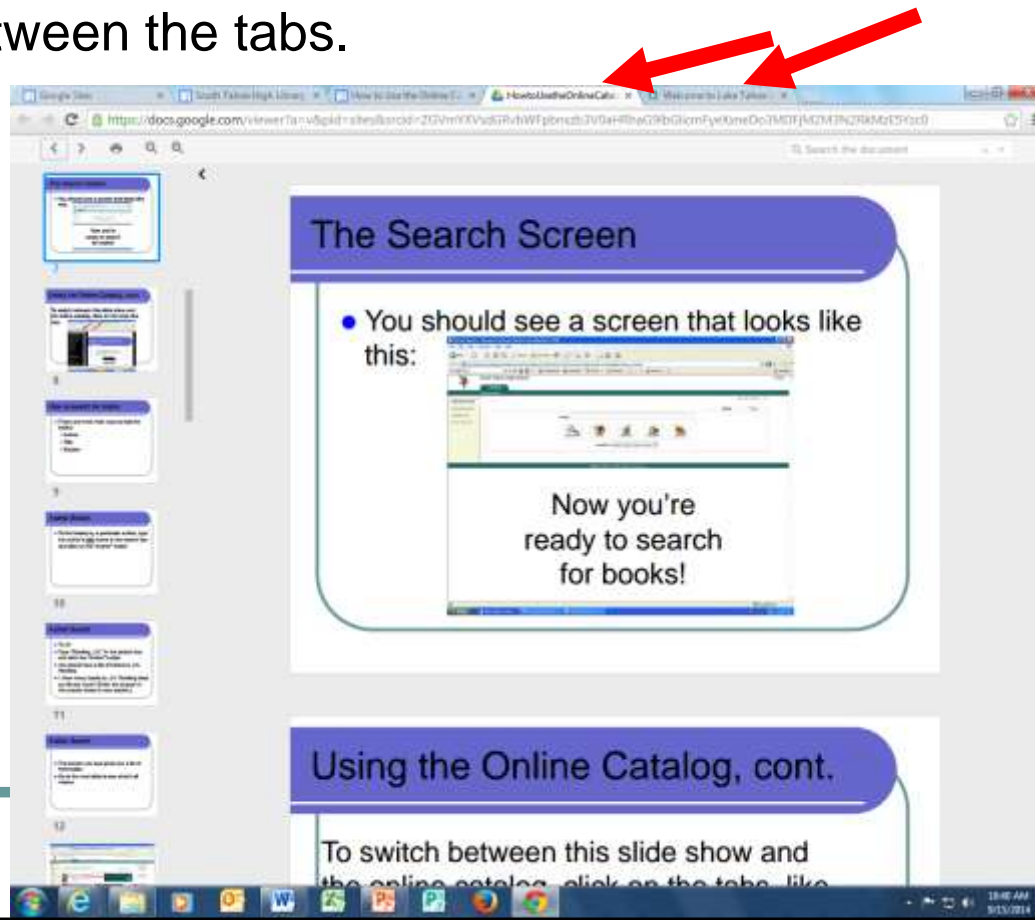

- . . . a computer system that helps you find books in the library

Using the Online Catalog

- The Online Catalog is accessible from all the computers in the library, from your Chromebook, your home computer or any other internet-connected device.

- Follow your teacher's instructions so you have two tabs open, one for this slide show; one for the online catalog
- To switch between this slide show and the online catalog, switch between the tabs.

How to search for books

- There are three main ways to look for books:
 - Author
 - Title
 - Subject

Author Search

- To find books by a particular author, type the author's last name in the search box and click on the “Author” button

Author Search

- Try it!
- Type “Rowling, J.K.” in the search box and click the “Author” button
- You should see a list of books by J.K. Rowling
- 1.How many books by J.K. Rowling does our library have? (Enter the answer in the answer sheet in your packet.)

Author Search

- The screen you see gives you a lot of information
- Go to the next slide to see what it all means.
